

Understanding Our Congregation Values

Identify to your level of satisfaction with the following. Note: You can be satisfied and still offer a suggestion of change.

In Alphabetical order	Very Satisfied	Satisfied	Would like to see a change	Not Applicable	Explain desired change.
Chapel's approach to social issues
Chapel's approach to valuing a born-again salvation experience
Children's activities and outreach
Evangelism inside the gates and outside
Men's Fellowship
Missions in the surrounding communities
Missions outside our area
Music during Sunday Worship including choirs, organ, and other instrumentals
Opportunities for engagement
Retaining new people
Sunday School classes
Sunday Sermon
Women's Fellowship
Youth Group outreach and activities

Comments:

Understanding the Congregation's Profile of the Future Senior Pastor

Evaluate the importance of each of the following qualities of the new senior pastor and mark your top five qualities with an "x" in the last column.

In Alphabetical order	Essential	Important	Not Important	Comments	Top Five (mark with "x")
Attracts new members
Brings Biblical clarity to social issues affecting the Chapel
Commits to growing the knowledge and faith of the congregation
Commits to world missions
Communicates vision for chapel direction and future
Deals comfortably and gently with conflict
Demonstrates administrative leadership and staff management
Engages in friendly fellowship and shares meaningful encouragement
Exemplifies Christian family life
Guides by example with strong faith and prayer life
Inspires and challenges as a teacher of scripture
Inspires generous stewardship
Interacts with committees and Board of Trustees
Lives in Big Canoe
Provides wise counsel
Pursues outreach to Big Canoe community
Respects people's divergent views

Comments:

What components are most important in a sermon?

In alphabetical order	Essential	Important	Somewhat Important	Less Important	Comments
Centers on teaching Bible passages in a relatable manner
Challenges intellect
Challenges my walk with God
Contains humor
Contains stories
Focuses on Jesus and the Gospel
Focuses on making me feel good
Leads to deeper understanding of Scripture
Provides spiritual nourishment
Sets forth clear faith positions and guides in decision making

Further Comments: _____

Choose 3 expectations you hope the new senior pastor will accomplish in the first 12 months. (Mark with an "x".)

_____ Engagement within the congregation

_____ Growth in worship attendance

_____ Growth in congregant's knowledge and love for Jesus

_____ Renewed vision for the chapel

_____ Successful assimilation into the chapel and community of Big Canoe

Other expectations for the first 12 months not listed above:

What inhibits people from coming to our chapel?

What are your hopes for the chapel in the next 5 years?

What else would you like to be considered as we prayerfully search for a new senior pastor?

Is there anything else you would like us to know?